

Prophetic Prayer

28 April 2008

God, my step will be towards grace and mercy
And I know by the Spirit of Liberty
I will be totally set free
Knowledge of the Son
Tonight has begun
I will step into a greater life
No more jealousy, envy and strife
I will walk into perfection
Because I'm God's creation
"To the Mercy Seat"
That's where God said we will meet
And He will speak intimately with me
And truly visions of His face I will see
I come running to the Mercy Seat
God I know there is victory, no more defeat
I'm rising to a higher place
Because tonight I receive Your Grace
I know that I will obtain Mercy
Because of this Law of Liberty
Thank you for magnifying Your mercy
To even a person like me
So I receive tonight
Knowing it's not by power, neither by might
But by Your Spirit, O great eternal God
So I come, I come running to the Mercy Seat
Knowing tonight is my night of victory, no more defeat
I'm turning my back, running towards prosperity and no more lack
I'm running to a place of healing divine
All promises in the book will now be mine
I've come running to the Mercy Seat
