Floods of cleansing streams ready to flow in this hour -
to bring about completion in every spirit, soul and body
to lift you up higher than you've ever been before to do a deep work in you this night that you'll never forget
because you will live forever.
Reminders of My goodness and mercy will flood your mind, your spirit and your soul.
You will cry for grace, and you will see the manifestation thereof
as sickness flees and weakness goes and death departs.
Life will enter as floods will flow over your soul,
because I'm ready to make you whole -
Your spirit, your body and your soul.

Prophecy B

In a minute of waiting, you will mount up with wings.
Yes, you will soar higher and higher till
the stars look brighter and brighter.
You will understand and you will know that there is a brand new Holy Ghost flow,
coming into your life this night
with such power and such authority.
You will be able to speak
and things will be able to change.
You will have a word of power
and you will be able to point and see things moving
in the right direction you want them to go,
because you are flying higher and higher.
On wings as eagles I'm lifting you up on the wind of My Spirit.
I'm reviving you with the rain of My Word -
Receive My Word and believe;
Receive My Word and revive;
Receive My Word and be restored
and see the power taking control of your whole spirit,
body and soul.

As you come up, I come down.
Divine connection will be made.
As I cry My mercy and you cry My mercy,
you will see the connection of power.
Because of grace you will be released and be set free,
take it right here, right now.

Riverbeds that looked so dry
Will all of a sudden start to overflow.
Deserts that looked so scorching hot
Will suddenly break through with streams and rivers.
You will understand the watering of my garden as I
water you tonight
and you will be that watered garden
where waters will not fail.
I'm making you a fountain
and you will understand My life.
