For you will see the brightness of the Light, because an understanding will come that I will give you about My power and My might.

And all around you people will stand, because there will be sight.

No more dark revelations trying to find out,
but people will understand the power of praise and a victory shout!

For all around, you will understand that Grace does now abound;

Sin is no longer a question anymore,
because people have stepped into My gracious heavenly store where abundance just flows and flows and flows and as a tree planted by the water, My people will just grow and grow and grow.

And by the knowledge of the Most High, they will know and know and know.

For years, by faith they did sow and sow and sow,
but the time of the harvest is here.

Can you hear the sound of the thunder? It is so near.

The power of the Most High is about to break in My Church in this day.

Yes, people will understand My glory, and they will walk in My holy high way.

No more dull understanding of trying to find what I have to say, because people will point a finger and say, "This is the Way."

More and more, there will come the sound of that clear, holy voice, because without knowing, people will just make that quality choice.

It will be by grace that I will split every dark cloud and shine forth the glory from My face and then people will be able to sing, "It is truly Amazing Grace."

For understand -

Long ago I have already taken you by the hand.

You will not go astray,

because I have already paved the way.

It is by My holy blood that you can now stand under this holy flood.

A flood of Holy Ghost power, being released in this minute, in this very hour.

So don't delay, don't walk away,

but stay, stay, stay in My presence in this day!

And hear My voice, don't struggle to make the choice;

It's for grace, and it's for mercy

that I have brought you, by My blood, holy liberty!
