

Prophecy at the Pool

29 November 2008

There's power for you
greater works to do,
but also to receive because you believe.
The beginning of things that you have never seen before,
knowing that as you step into the water
open your mouth and call for more and more and more.
I'm ready to do for you what you have never seen before!
So step into the water, every child of Mine;
Hear My voice, I call you My son and My daughter.
As you step into the water, hear My voice.
Open your mouth and make a quality choice
to put My words in your mouth
and call your miracle to come tonight.
It will be the power, the creation of light
and as I said 'Let there be Light', it's by My power and by My might.
So I've placed inside of you the same Spirit
so the greater works you can do,
but also you can receive, it is for you to believe.
Step into the water and speak the word;
by faith, receive tonight.
See the creating power, here comes my Light.
Breakthrough for you!
