Have you not heard
that the water has already been stirred?
For some the power is so far,
for some the power is so near,
but for those that are hungry and thirsty, the power is already here.
You can just get off and jump into the water,
I have stirred it for you, My son, and for you, My daughter.
So get into this Holy Ghost flow,
It's for you the power to know.
And when you say a word in this day and in this hour,
you will see the manifestation of the holy power.
You don't have to wait and you don't have to delay,
you can just open your mouth, take My Word and say what you have to say.
See Me performing My Word in this day and you will know - you are that tree, by the waters you must grow.
Fruit you will bear, all the time and every day;
Open your mouth and say what you need to say.
Don't wait for power to come,
that's why there are only some
that walk in it in this hour,
but do you not know that you are already clothed with power?
For you the waters have been stirred.
Have you not heard?
The fountain has been opened long ago
so that you can the power today know.
Get into this divine flow
and wherever you go, people will start to know that you have been in the presence of the One that came from Most High.
Come on, take the Word of Truth, don't be like the devil and lie.
Don't wait for something that will be in the distant future, My son - look in My word and know that 2000 years ago the work has already begun.
Now it's for you to just get into this flow.
Take My Word, it's time to know revelation knowledge, birthed on the inside of you.
It's time to know you've got the Spirit and the greater works you must do.
Understand, all across this land
people will know that I've stretched out My hand and they will see the brightness of the shining of My face and they will also be able to say, "Amazing Grace"
Amen
