

Prophecy

21 September 2008

---

For truly there is a higher place,
open for each one by My mercy and by My grace.
Even right now, it's just to open your heart and that glorious fresh thing can right now start.
Touched, yes! You'll be touched by the fire!
And by My Spirit, you'll be lifted higher, higher and higher.
You don't have to stand on the outside,
it's just to take those heart's doors and open them wide.
It's not only Me coming in,
but it's for you, raising your hands in praises you will bring.
As deep calls unto that deep,
you don't have to look through a key hole and take a peep.
You can storm right in where the presence dwells, and you will understand that with you, it will go well -
with your spirit, with your soul and with your body,
each and every one in this place.
Do you not understand that there is a higher place?
So don't live down there below.
It's upon you, I My power will bestow -
Greater power than any other generation before and here today.
For years, people have pointed and directed, but this generation will walk in that higher way.
They will understand what it means to stretch forth the hand and to see the glory fall, because of generations that did call on the name of the Holy High One,
but it's time to realise it has begun.
This new work, which is actually old and by grace.
Understand, I want to take you to a higher place.
The door has been opened on the cross that day,
now it's time for you to walk on this way.
A way of glory and a way of mercy,
a way you will understand, My Spirit will bring you liberty.
Liberty means: you are FREE! Free! Free!
Free from sin! Free from death!
Free from your labours in this hour!
It's time to rise up to this holy place and take hold of My holy power!
This is the day that I have appointed for you, to understand that signs, wonders, and miracles you can also do.
Don't stand on the side,
open those hearts doors wide.
See the holy place, its open for you by My grace.
Come on in, My son,
Come on in, My daughter.
Partake of the Tree of Life and drink of the Living Water.
Hallelujah!