

Prophecy

01 JANUARY 2009

2009,
The year people will know that you are Mine
Much will happen because of a new song
The song and sound thereof will increase the throng
And this will be the tune you will sing
It will tell and talk more and more about the Great King 2000 years ago He said 'The Kingdom is now here'
But only now people will pay attention and hear
For doctrines of men have deviated them from course
Not anymore, because real prophets will bring them back on course
The seasoned word of the King will now be brought
And even children and the uneducated will understand it as it is taught
The word of the Kingdom and its King
That is the song that now you will sing
Power, glory and presence of the Holy One it will bring
And for religious ideas of men, it will bring the final sting
Hearts from today will open up more and more for this word
Understanding the Kingdom is not of this world
It is righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost and that is right on the inside of you
Now Kingdom power will cause you to stand up and do
Do the duties of the priest and the king
As the new song continuously you will sing
Understanding by the Blood that you have been redeemed
And God says 'As My kings you are highly esteemed'
Children of God, it is time to rise to maturity
Out of the yoke of the Law and slavery
For where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty
Now understand the meaning and ministry of the Great King
He said *'I have come abundant life to bring
No more preaching and teaching of death and law
This is building with wood, hay and straw
But it's time to take the Word and be bold
Speaking rightly as you build with silver and gold'*

It is not like He is the King of the Jews anymore
No, no, no! It's a worldwide thing, this song that you will sing
A song of redemption brought by the King
Getting you away from the old and into the new thing

Rivers of living water flowing out from the throne
Calling people to be part of the Kingdom and not to stand alone
The weak and the dying will become healthy and strong
Because they will take to themselves the words of this song
So Kingdom people, realize it is 2009!
No more disturbance in the Word, everything will be tuned in fine
People will truly come to know and understand
The message is for every person and for every land
For God so loved the world, He did say
That's why Jesus became the Truth, the Life and the Way
Not for selected groups of people anymore
Uh-uh-uh! But for all that sing about it now and there is more...
More nations, more tongues, more tribes streaming towards the King
Ready this awesome song to sing
Out of darkness and into His marvellous light
Arise and shine, it's your time to live and to be bright
Like the midday sun in brightness and power
For the King and His Kingdom – this is now the hour
The Good News will truly now take the upper hand
As revelation of the King and his Kingdom floods every land
So here it is, Kingdom people, it's 2009
Don't fear anymore - everything will be fine!
