

PROPHECY

Can you hear the rumble?
Can you hear the noise?
It's the sound from above; it's the Father's voice
It's nothing you have to fear
Although it is so very near
It's the sound of the wings of My holy dove
Bringing again into the Church My holy love
It will bring you closer and take you deeper
It will make you see and everything will be clearer
So don't fear the noise
But you've got to also lift up your voice
In worship you will sing
And My presence I will bring
And you will understand
I'm bringing revival to the land
So wake up, shake up child, it's time right now
It's time for you in worship to bow
And realise that the glory is now here
Can you hear the rumble?
It is so very near
Can you hear the noise?
So then lift up your voice
Together with the Father you will stand
And say with Jesus
*'Can you not see, this is really me
My life in Your life manifested in this hour?'*
My Spirit is here
My love is here
Rise up Church, you've got the power
Amen
