

PROPHECY

19 August 2010

God says people will now more than ever understand My grace
It will come fully to every person
It will hit them right in the face
They will understand My very essence
Because they will live in the glory of My presence
And all around
Grace will just more and more abound
And people will stand still
Because they will know My will
Like never before
They will understand that I've got a great and heavenly store
That I'm ready to open up
So don't just bring a cup
Bring your life
And stop the envy and the strife
And see me taking you up
To a whole new life than ever before
Didn't you know and have you not heard
That I've got much more in store?
So know right now revival is for you
And you can stand up
And the greater works of Christ you will be able to do
So speak it
Let it come out of your mouth
Call the sinners from the north
Call them from the south
And you will see them running into the Kingdom
And they will realize
It's time for everybody to rise
To the full size of the stature of the Christ
In this hour
Church, it's your turn
Be clothed with Holy Ghost and power
