

Prophecy

27 November 2010

For you are stepping into a time like never before
Your hearts and your minds, says God, I will stir
Then you will rise up out of obscurity and you will minister
You will stretch out your hand
And it will not be yours, but you will see My powerful hand
All around, people in the power will fall
And many others for mercy and grace will call
But you will rise up to a place that has been strange unto you
And all of a sudden things that were dreams, now you will just do
Others will look and say, 'Is this the same man?'
But like Elijah you will say it's because in the presence of God I stand
Accompanying you will be My holy angels in glorious lightening power of fire
And people will know you are not alone, because My promises are true
That I am with you
So don't be ashamed to open your mouth and speak the oracles from My very Word
Because like a piece of wood from the fire you will pluck them out of the world
Signs and wonders will just be the ordinary thing of the day
Because I will work with you and confirm the words you say
So never be ashamed and don't shy away or don't stand back
For with the ministry will also come the overflow and you will never stand in lack
But you will understand the word Prosperity
And you will know even in your finances there will be great liberty
You have believed to give
But now you will believe to receive
For flood gates are not opening, they are breaking
If you can hear the rumble, there is coming a great quaking
I will shake the heavens and I will shake the earth for you
So that financially you will be strong and able to do
Things that have always just been a desire of your heart
And when you walk out of this place you will press the button that says start
Words of prophecy will just flow
And you will know spiritually but also financially you will grow
It's time to put the world to shame
That they will know this church thing is not a play game
People are looking for reality
People are wanting to be set free
And you are the one that can bring the liberty
And you will be able to do it, because you will know spiritual and financial prosperity
So child of God, rise up in this day
It is time for you to hear what the Lord has to say
Take the power of God in your mouth
Call them from the North and call them from the South
Stand up and stretch out your hand
It is time to know that I've raised you and in My presence you will stand
The glory is now yours My son

And yesterday and today is a new thing that has already begun
Speak the words of God and speak it in truth right now
For I am saying the presence of the hell, before you will bow
Devils will be cast out and people will shout and shout
Because the victory is yours and the victory is Mine
Oh I have called you by your name and you are Mine
So child of God it's time to rise and shine for your light has come
And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you
Nations shall come and say what can we do?
And they will give and give and give
And you will live and live and live
And know that My glory is now yours
Strengthened with might in the inner man
As in My presence in worship you stand
