

Prophecy

29 January 2011

*(... Get a container with water to use as your very own pool...)*

At this pool, says God
Today you will find
I will touch your heart
And I will touch your mind
I will change everything around at this water
Can you hear My voice My son?
Can you hear My voice My daughter?
God is saying in this day
You've got to make the choice
Because over the water is coming to you God's voice
Things will be changed and you will see
That this power and the glory is coming from Me
Thus sayeth God Most High
God says, in the Spirit everything will change
Right now in this hour
You will find in this water
God's Holy Ghost power
So don't be afraid to walk in this night (this day)
Because everything that is not from God will be put to flight
And there is going to come a brand new day
Hear the voice of the Lord and what He has to say
Today you've got to hear His voice
And you've got to make this choice

*(... Now walk through your pool and feel how God's presence touches you...)*
