

Prophecy B

04 February 2011

---

Every enemy that is opposing you
That is standing against you
Is going to be destroyed and taken out of the way
God is standing at your tombstone
And He is saying, Roll away the stone
Every opposing force is going to be rolled away
And Jesus is standing in front of your deadness
In front of every opposition and every resistance
And He says, Come out!
And Jesus says, Roll away the stone!
Every opposing force
Every demon power
Everything that is attacking you
That's hindering you
That's depressing you
That's suppressing you
That's taking you down
That's hindering you from being the man of God
The woman of God that you are supposed to be God says, Today I will destroy all the opposing forces and powers
And you are going to be a new, recreated being
God says, There is a fresh wind blowing in the Church!
