

Prophecy

13 March 2011

For He says, I am the Lord that healeth thee
And I will lay none of these diseases of Egypt upon thee
For I will take away from the midst of thee all sickness
So I will bless the Lord, oh my soul
And all that is within me, I will bless His holy name
I will bless the Lord, oh my soul
And I will not forget one of His good benefits
He forgives all your iniquities and He healeth all thy diseases
So who hath believed the report of the Lord?
And unto whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?
But He was wounded for our transgressions
He was bruised for our iniquities
The chastisement of our peace was upon Him
And with His stripes we are healed
So when the evening was come they brought many unto Him
Who was sick and demon possessed
And He healed all the sick and casted out the demons with a Word
So that the prophecy of Isaiah might be fulfilled:
He Himself took our sicknesses and bore our diseases
So let it be known, let it be heard
Let it be written and let it be read
That the God of flesh, with whom there is nothing impossible
Will do for you what you never thought of
I will bring you out and take you to a place that you have not seen
All I'm asking you, Have you got a heart that is keen?
For I will pour water on him that is thirsty
And when My Spirit comes, He will take you into true liberty
So be it known today that you don't have to wait
For somebody else to bring the Word and hear what he has to say
For the prophets of old did speak
By the anointing of the Spirit of the most holy One
And years ago, you can look back, this Word has already begun
For the Word was made flesh and dwelt amongst us and we beheld His glory
Now you can look back in history and read the wonderful story

That joy to the world is the message, that Christ is come
And this power and this glory is for all not just for some
 So you can open the doors of your heart
And let the glory of God, a new thing in your life will start
 And you will walk into ways that you have not known
 For years and years the prophets the Word did sow
 And now you can just step in and partake
 Of the blessings that is for you, My child
Don't be timid in your thoughts, stretch it loud and let it run wild
 For I am prepared to do exceedingly, abundantly
 Far above all that you can think or pray
Can you hear the Word of the Lord, what He has to say?
 But I am the Lord that healeth thee
 And all the power from this earth is coming from Me
 So stretch out your hand and receive
 This is for all who will take the Word and believe
I am the Lord that healeth thee and I will lay no sickness upon thee
 You are My son, you are My daughter
Open your mouth and from your belly shall flow living water
 And as you speak, words will come forth
 And you will call them from the South
 You will call them from the North
They will come into the Kingdom and sit down to eat
 And they will say, 'The Word of God is truly meat
 We can see that the Lord is among you for sure'
 This is the day and this is the hour
God is saying, I'm clothing you with My Holy Ghost
 And I'm giving you My power
 Hallelujah!
