

Prophetic Prayer

21 May 2011

Father, today we just want to say
‘Yes’ to You Jesus
We want to know Your voice
Above all sorts of noise
We want to hear the Master’s voice
And today we are making that quality choice
That we will say yes Lord, yes Lord
Yes, yes, yes
And we know that if we follow this way
You will just bless, bless, bless
Because we are going to go all the way
And we will hear the voice, what the Lord has to say
And every day we will walk this holy highway
And we will experience the glory of the Most High
And the presence of God is just coming to us so nigh
And we will never be alone
Because we are part of His flesh and part of His bone
Because we make a big ‘yes’ statement in this hour
And we know that God is going to clothe us with fresh power
The Spirit of God is coming upon each and everyone
Oh, we are looking unto you Jesus
As we say yes
Knowing that the Lord is stretching out His hand
And saying, My son and My daughter, I will bless
And we are going to go for it
All the way, in Jesus’ name
And we will just never be the same
Amen!
