

Prophecy

06 November 2011

Be ready to hear the voice of God in these days
For the steps of a righteous man are ordered of the Lord
To cause you to walk in His ways
Don't walk around and say
But the promise's it seems like they stay delayed
God says be anchored stay a stayed
Keep your eyes focused and riveted on me
For the glory truly you shall see
Don't be idle in what you think and do
Because I'm going to work this glory in and through you
Be ready don't wait for another day
Open your ears and hear what the God has to say
For it has always been a choice
But there's always been a voice
The good Shepherd speaking everyday and every hour
Ready for those that hear
To clothe them with more and more grace
And more and more power
I have said it and I have said it again
I will get rid of the anguish the stress and the pain
It will all happen when you can just hear the sound of the abundance of rain
The wind is coming into your wings this day My son
The wind is coming into your wings this day My daughter
As the wind comes so comes the sound of the rain
And you will know that your prayers were not in vain
For those that wait upon the Lord they all know
That in the power and the presence of God by grace they will grow
The wings is there to make you rise up
Fly higher and higher and higher and higher
The glory of God in your life will be brighter and brighter and brighter
As you come close to the sun
You will know that a fresh work has truly begun
Rise up children of the Most High
It's time to spread your wings and fly
On eagle's wings I will take you
In My presence you will see coming from My face
And you will understand this flying higher is all by grace
Soar child of God-soar
Soar child of God-soar
See all these temporal things fading away
And in My presence you will just stay and stay and stay
