

Prophecy

11 September 2011

It's like many people think of having a loss
But God says, 'Take a new look at the cross'
It will not be long and you will be so strong
It will be because of My righteousness
And you will understand I am there to bless
You've been singing today
They that wait and wait and wait
God says, 'Just look in front of you
There's this awesome gate'
The gate that you can just pass through
And understand it's not what you are going to do
It's only by grace
And you'll understand it
When you just experience the glory coming from His face
So God says, 'I will release the power of the cross
And you will understand, there will be nothing like a loss'
It will all be gain, gain, gain
And it will not be working
Putting on you strain and strain and strain
But it will be filled with ease
Because it will be by My peace
And I know you believe
Therefore you can just receive
So get it today, don't wait for another way
It's already been made through the cross for you
So understand who you are – yes, you
You are one with Christ the Lamb
So in the presence of God you can boldly stand
And on you I will bring rain of blessings
Rain of glory and rain of prosperity
And you will understand I am giving you everything
That's invested in My glory
I've called you to be such a vessel filled with light
You can just walk around
And you will see power and experience might
For I have given you the authority
It's all in the spirit of liberty
You cannot do it by trying to keep the Law
And do it by works of your own righteousness
But receive because you believe

The power of the cross will take you higher
Today than ever before
And when you step in
Every day you will experience
There's more and more and more
It can never die out
It can never dry up
It will always flow
Because in the presence of God
The only thing that can happen is you will grow
Into the stature of the maturity
Of the fullness of the Son
Two thousand years ago on the cross
This thing has begun
So today, because you believe
Open your hearts and receive
Take a new look to the one dying on the cross, shedding His blood
And you can just raise your hands and stand under the blessings
That is coming like a flood
It will flood your life totally through and through
John 14:12, the works that I do you shall do
And greater than these
Are for you in this day and age
So rise up child of God
This is your day
Open your mouth and say,
'I believe, therefore I receive'
Hallelujah!
