

New Year's Prophecy

01 January 2012

---

In the beginning many will take offence, but it will be accepted by few.
For many would believe the prophets of the Maya.
But we stand with the Word of Jehovah.
The Maya has been long dead and gone.
But God's Word is fresh and ever strong.
He said: "I will make all things new."
Now it's time for this Word to come through.
Do you believe those that are dead and gone... or those that are now and standing strong?
Along with them you'll see the new come in.
You will also acknowledge the hand of God and it will make you sing.
Sing a new song in your heart,
When you see by faith the new is come, that is when for you, it will also start.
Don't worry about them that will mock and scoff,
Soon they will see how you stand aloft.
Don't settle for the doom prophets of old,
People try to revive it to see if it can be sold.
Don't buy it or pay for doom and gloom,
Stand with the One who calls Himself the Groom.
He does call the saints His bride
And He will stand right by her side
To take her in this year
And lead her in the new that is already here.
The doomers and gloomers will be shown wrong,
But those that say, "We will go for the new," will be growing strong.
Governments all over will change like never before.
God Almighty will step in and He will the new restore,
But privately in your own life, child of the Most High,
Now believe and confess His promises; He cannot lie.
And if you start off by being one of the few — Trust God for He makes all things new.
